

Facilities

outline

The Center aims to be environment friendly, for example by using solar energy.

① Laboratory

Laboratories and equipment are available as base for practical fieldwork and research.

② Specimen Room

Coral specimens mainly from the Sekisei Lagoon and surrounding waters are stored.

③ Lecture Room

Multifunctional lecture rooms for meetings, exhibitions and lectures are established.

④ Library

Scientific literature and results of various monitoring surveys are accessible.

Visitor information

- Opening hours 8:30~17:15
- Closed on Saturdays, Sundays, New Year's and national holidays
- Entrance free of charge

Access

About 25 minutes by car to the Painushima Ishigaki Airport
About 5 minutes by car
to the Ishigaki Port Terminal

Scientists or researchers who study ecological coral reefs desire to use the Center, please contact the following.

Ministry of the Environment
International Coral Reef Research and Monitoring Center
2-27 Yashima-cho, Ishigaki-shi, Okinawa-ken 907-0011 Japan
TEL 81-980-82-4902
FAX 81-980-82-0279

International Coral Reef Research and Monitoring Center

Ministry of the Environment